ABOUT THE HOSPITAL

Together, they are developing Sahlgrenska University Hospital for a sustainable future. They are transforming healthcare with the goal of becoming Europe's leading university hospital by 2032. In collaboration with their patients, they work to ensure quality, accessibility, patient safety, research, education, and innovation—within an integrated healthcare system in Västra Götalandsregionen.

Their vision and goals aim toward care of the highest quality, where the patient is always at the center. They provide local and regional healthcare, as well as highly specialized care to patients from across Sweden and abroad. Our employees are our strength, contributing to knowledge exchange nationally and internationally. Through digital tools and new ways of working, we simplify everyday life at the hospital and offer modern, accessible, and efficient care of the highest quality.

Dialysis Clinic Östra is a hemodialysis outpatient unit providing highly specialized care with a broad scope of services. We treat both chronically and acutely ill patients and have 16 treatment stations.

We offer you a stimulating work environment where you combine medical technology and nursing care, with the opportunity to build long-term, positive relationships based on a person-centered approach. Our goal is to create engaged and involved patients, focusing on supporting their self-care abilities, enabling them to live active lives with a good quality of life despite chronic illness.

Gothenburg Sweden

Gothenburg (Göteborg), Sweden's second-biggest city, combines vibrant urbanity, a friendly vibe, and seaside charm. It also has culinary prowess and a world-class craft beer scene. It is the city with the longest summers in Sweden.

The city is located on the west coast, of southwestern Sweden, about halfway between the capitals of Copenhagen, Denmark, and Oslo, Norway. It has a city pulse with nature on its doorstep. It's known for its friendly locals, and no wonder – living in such a characterful town right by the sea would make anyone cheerful and welcoming. Its port is the largest in the Nordic region.

Nature lovers will find solace in Gothenburg's abundant green spaces and natural beauty. The city is surrounded by a breathtaking archipelago comprised of numerous picturesque islands, offering tranquillity and serenity just a short ferry ride away. Slottsskogen, a sprawling park within the city, invites visitors to explore its lush forests and meadows and encounter native wildlife. It's the perfect place to relax, picnic, or take a leisurely stroll.

Gothenburg's friendly and welcoming atmosphere is evident in the warm smiles of its inhabitants. The locals take pride in their city and are known for their hospitality, creating an inviting ambience for visitors. The city's commitment to sustainability is also notable, with an emphasis on efficient public transportation, extensive green spaces, and initiatives to reduce carbon emissions.
