VÄRNAMO

REGION JÖNKÖPING

Värnamo is a mid-sized town in southern Sweden with about 34,000 inhabitants. It combines the simplicity of small-town living with a dynamic spirit of entrepreneurship, creativity, and collaboration. Everyday life here is easy and family-friendly, with short distances, a safe environment, and a strong community atmosphere.

In 2023, Värnamo was named both Sweden's Outdoor Municipality and Sweden's Culture Municipality, a rare recognition that highlights the town's balance between nature and culture. Residents and visitors alike can enjoy a wide variety of outdoor activities: hiking and cycling through forests and open landscapes, canoeing on calm lakes, or exploring the nearby Store Mosse National Park, Sweden's largest marshland reserve. The town also offers cultural richness, with art exhibitions, theatre, concerts, and local festivals that bring people together throughout the year.

The town is home to creative industries and is part of the "Furniture District," known for Swedish design and craftsmanship, which adds to its reputation as a hub for innovation and quality.

Families living in Värnamo benefit from excellent schools, childcare, and healthcare services, while enjoying a safe environment where children can grow up close to nature. At the same time, the town offers cultural and social opportunities for all ages, making it easy to build both a professional and personal life.

Located in Region Jönköping, Värnamo has good connections to larger cities while maintaining its own unique identity. Its blend of small-town charm, entrepreneurial spirit, cultural vitality, and natural beauty makes it an attractive place to settle, work, and thrive.
